Ski Jumpers Head West For Big Tournament

SAN FRANCISCO. — For the first time in the 28-year history of the event, amateur ski stars of every state north of the Mason-Dixon line today are preparing to head west of the Rockies for the staging of the annual tournament of the National Ski Association of America.

Close to 200 entrants, representing 109 individual ski clubs throughout the country, are already listed for the tournament. W. L. Maynard, supervising of winter sports for Southern Pacific Company and California's representative on the board of directors of the National Ski Association, is now at Lake Placid arranging for the trip west of the stars competing there. An invitation has been extended to the Japanese Olympic Games team to visit the Tahoe trajectory during the national tournament.

In the meantime California's record snowfall of 1932, edging anything in more than 35 years, has perfected the setting for the national classic, blanketing the Tahoe-Sierra country with from six to 15 feet of snow.

Gate City Girls Get Ready For San Bernardino Orange Classic

Picking oranges is not particularly an art but selecting prize winning oranges is. The officials of the National Orange Show which is to be held February 18-25, offer a prize to the girl who selects the most perfect fruit, hence the activity of these orange picking girls.

Eddie Quillan in New Comedy Heads Double Feature Bill

Fox Redondo Theatre extends you a hearty invitation to see and hear and enjoy a wonderful program of talking pictures, this coming week.

Saturday only, you will enjoy a great double feature program, featuring our favorite, Eddie Quillan, in his newest comedy, "The Gig Shot"; also Buck Jones in "The Texas Ranger." We will also have on our stage, Ralph Selby and his Redondo Beach Girls' Band. This band is the only all girls band in Southern California.

Sunday and Monday will be laugh days at the Fox Redondo. "The Passionate Plumber," starring Buster Keaton, Polly Moran and Jimmie Durante, is as fast and as funny a picture as has ever been shown.

Tuesday and Wednesday, beautiful Irene Dunn and Myrna Loy, show us something entirely new and modern in marriage in "Consolation Marriage." Irene Dunn, famous overnight in pictures, because of her immortal "Sabra" in "Cimarron." Now a star will thrill you as a girl who sought ease for a broken heart in the dangerous experiment of Consolation Marriage.

Thursday and Friday, two feature picture attractions—"Hotel Continental" and "Working Girls"—The Fox Redondo Theatre, now with its new low admissions, is drawing big crowds and making many new friends. Entire lower floor, any time, 30 cents. Balcony, any time, only 20 cents. Children, always 10 cents.

Mushers Ready For Dog Classic

QUEBEC.—(U.P.)—Dog lovers are watching the preparations for the eleventh annual Eastern International Dog-sled Derby, to be run here on Feb. 22, 23 and 24.

This snow classic is run against time over a course measuring 123 miles, to be covered in three daily laps of 41 miles each.

This year the race is of special interest. The young Emil St. Godard, who won the race four times in the last five years, has two legs on the sled Cup, and another win this year will give it to him permanently. Leonard Seppala, veteran dog-team hero of the famous rush with diphtheria serum to Nome, has two legs on the sled cup for the best conditioned dogs, and stands to win it permanently in the coming race.

"Delicious" Janet Gaynor Coming Soon

Fox Melody Romance Booked at Torrance Three Days Next Week

Janet Gaynor's appearance before a magistrate charged with unlawful entry into the United States and infraction of the immigration laws, which makes her subject to deportation, is one of the dramatic highlights of "Delicious." Fox Melody romance coming to the Torrance Theatre, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, in which the wistful little star shares honors with Charles Farrell.

Janet's predicament is brought about when, as a Scotch immigrant lass, she eludes the immigration officers on her arrival in New York to steal ashore in the created box stall of a polo pony. Her subsequent adventures, which include a brief period as singing and dancing star in a Russian cafe and many narrow escapes from pursuing detectives, finally end with her roaming the streets in despair before giving herself up to the police.

This climactic sequence in the picture, dramatized with George Gersehwin's thematic creation, "New York Rhapsody," symbolic of the magnitude, vigor, will-to-build and innate cruelty of the great metropolis, is comparable to no other original screen composition and is said to rank with the greatest bits of sustained dramatic action ever screened.

Nat. Orange Show Opens Today For Ten Day Exhibit

SAN BERNARDINO.—There is cause for rejoicing in San Bernardino and among the ranks of citrus growers everywhere, all because the National Orange show gives promise of having a most successful season with its 1932 edition which is scheduled for February 18-25. Governor James Ralph opens the show tonight.

Notwithstanding conditions the National Orange Show has disposed of practically all its industrial space as well as its carnival space and concessions. More than 60 exhibitors of fruit for the rack displays, have taken all space available. There are more exhibitors in the by-products division than ever before.

The feature exhibitors this year are Los Angeles county, Ventura county, San Diego county, Orange county, Riverside, Sacramento, Corona, Colton, Pomona, Ontario, Pasadena, Hemet, Redlands and the State Department of Agriculture.

The rack exhibitors include a gigantic display 250 feet long under the Sunlight brand of the California Fruit Growers Exchange, the first time members of this organization have joined together in a unified display. The Mutual Orange Distributors have their usual large display.

Look For Grunion Late Next Month

Look for grunion late in March, say the biologists of the California State Fisheries at Terminal Island. And late means both late in the month and late in the night. The first run is scheduled to appear at 10:30 on the night of March 24, and for two nights after, an hour later each night.

April, May and June are "closed" months for grunion by order of the game and fish commission and the state legislature.

In July and August the silvery hordes will appear four times, each time in a series of four nightly runs.

Pasadena Players In New Production

Charles Levison, who has won many followers through a score or more excellent characterizations in Pasadena Community Playhouse productions, will head the cast in the biting farce-satire of censors, "Censored," by Conrad. Seller which is having its premiere production from February 15 to 27.

Conrad Seller, the author-actor, invited Captain D. MacD. Jones of the Los Angeles police department; Dickson Morgan, producer, and the cast of "Lysistrata" to see the play.

Autos End Century-Old Trade WRENTHAM, Mass.—(U.P.)—Wrentham's village smithy has gone the way of most horseshoers in these modern days of motor transportation. When J. Edward Carlander recently closed his blacksmith shop he closed out a business which had been carried on by various smithies for more than a century.

Rotarians Hold Fourth Meeting At Honolulu

Members of Rotary clubs from practically all nations touching the Pacific ocean, including Japan and China, are expected to attend the fourth Pacific Rotary Conference at Honolulu, June 12-15, and the twenty-third convention of Rotary International at Seattle, the week following.

Problems of developing better economic relations in the Orient, and through them the restoration of peace, will be discussed by delegates.

LOOKING FOR PUBLICITY

DAVIS.—(U.P.)—An "optimistic burglar" is being hunted here. Besides entering two stores he broke into a newspaper office, the Davis Enterprise. In the stores he took 14 silk shirts.
